

Ms. Rósbjörg Jónsdóttir is the managing director of the Iceland Renewable Energy Cluster (IREC) since April 2022, the cluster organization serving the whole energy sector in Iceland (2013), where the focus is on increasing competitiveness of the Icelandic energy sector through innovation and knowledge sharing. Along with her MD position, Rósbjörg serves as the local partner for Social Progress Imperative in Iceland, emphasizing social progress within its society. Rósbjörg holds a BA in German and international business from the University of Iceland and an MBA from the same school in 2002. 2014 Rósbjörg took an executive program in creating shared value at the HBS. Rósbjörg has years of experience in managing and creating all kinds of seminars, summits, and conferences, both locally and internationally. Specialized in bringing key players together from different industries and sectors and with different knowledge, with the aim to increase shared value. Rósbjörg mapped up, implemented, and founded the Iceland Tourism Cluster 2012-2016.

---

Mr. Hans Bolscher is Secretary General of Geothermie Nederland, the Dutch industry association for geothermal energy. He is a Dutch economist and senior consultant. He formerly worked as director for Climate and Industry at the Dutch Ministry of the Environment and was Director CCS at the Ministry of Economic Affairs. Hans Bolscher currently serves as a board member and chair for several profit and non-profit organizations in the areas of climate, climate finance, and renewable energy. He is deeply involved in discussions around energy transition, climate finance and sustainable energy.

---

Mr. Sigurður Atli Jónsson is CEO of Arctic Green Energy, who he joined as Vice Chairman and Senior Advisor in 2017 and has served as CEO from 2022. From 2011 to 2017 he was the chief executive officer of Kvika, an investment bank based in Iceland. A co-founder of ALFA Securities, he served as its chief executive officer from 2004 until 2011. Before that, he was chief executive officer of Landsbréf and managing director and head of capital management at Landsbanki Íslands. He began his financial markets career at Landsbréf in 1994, after having worked at the National Economics Institute in Iceland. Mr Jónson holds an MA in economics from Queen's University in Canada and a BSc in economics from the University of Iceland.

---

Mr. Antoine Lochet is a Counsel at BBA//Fjeldco, an Icelandic law firm with operations in Iceland, the UK and France. He is admitted to the Icelandic and French bars and specializes in corporate, project finance and energy law. Antoine Lochet has 15 years of international experience with a focus on energy regulations. He has provided advice to various international projects focusing on the analysis of legal and regulatory frameworks relating to geothermal resources and the drafting of legislation and regulations on geothermal energy.